FELLOWSHIP SUPPORT:

This section provides a summary of all Graduate Fellowships administered through the Graduate School for 1999-2000.

Multi-Year Fellowships
Multi-Year Fellowships are awarded on a competitive basis to highly qualified new graduate students. The 12-month award carries a stipend of $15,000 and a full tuition scholarship. The fellowships are awarded for two years for master’s students or for a total of three years for doctoral students. Candidates must be enrolling in their first year of study in a graduate program and are expected to have outstanding academic credentials. In 1999-2000 the Graduate School awarded Multi-Year Fellowships to the following programs:
- Business Administration (3)
- Civil Engineering
- Library Science
- Mathematics (2)
- Philosophy
- Physics and Astronomy
- Spanish
- Statistics
- Toxicology (2)

Kentucky Opportunity Fellowships
As a result of being identified as having achieved national distinction or being well-positioned to gain such recognition, selected graduate departments were allocated a KOF by the Graduate School. For 1999-2000, these fellowships included a 12-month $15,000 stipend, $500 in research funding and a full tuition scholarship. In addition to the allocated fellowship, some departments received additional KOFs on a competitive basis. In 1999-2000 the Graduate School awarded KOFs to the following programs:
- Agronomy
- Agricultural Economics
- Anatomy and Neurobiology
- Animal Science
- Anthropology
- Biochemistry
- Biomedical Engineering
- Business Administration (2)

OTHER STUDENT SUPPORT AWARDED BY THE GRADUATE SCHOOL:

Dissertation Enhancement Award
These awards of up to $3,000 are available to support post-qualifying graduate student doctoral projects that require research to be conducted at a site distant from the campus. Programs may nominate two students per academic year.

Total Awarded 1999-2000: $30,000
COMMONWEALTH RESEARCH AWARD
These awards range from $500-$1,000 and are used for travel expenses for graduate students to present research findings of the highest quality at professional, scholarly conferences. Programs may nominate one student per academic year.

Total Awarded 1999-2000: $48,188

STUDENT SUPPORT
Students may request funds from the Graduate School to help defray certain expenses relating to their graduate education. These awards of up to $350 per fiscal year are used for research-related travel, research expenses, or travel to professional meetings to present research results. This award is self-nominating, but must have approval of the Director of Graduate Studies.

DISSERTATION YEAR SUPPORT FUNDS
Student support funds of up to $1000 are available to support travel or research expenses for recipients of the Dissertation Year Fellowship.

Total Awarded 1999-2000: $18,000

KENTUCKY OPPORTUNITY SUPPORT
Research awards of up to $500 were available to recipients of the Kentucky Opportunity Fellowships.

Total Awarded 1999-2000: $18,000

UNIVERSITY GRADUATE STUDENT DEVELOPMENT AWARDS
University Graduate Student Development Awards (UGSDA) are available as professional development support to recruit new graduate students of the highest academic merit to the University of Kentucky. These awards may be used by the student to defray any legitimate cost of education, research expenditures, or professional travel expenses. This funding is awarded to graduate programs, which in turn choose student recipients. Up to $3,000 per graduate program, with a minimum of $500 and a maximum of $3,000 per student, is available.

Total Awarded 1999-2000: $99,000

VISITING DISTINGUISHED FACULTY PROGRAM
This program provides funding to bring a nationally recognized scholar to campus to serve as the Graduate School Outside Examiner for an outstanding doctoral student’s Final Examination. The distinguished visitor will give a colloquium on his or her research that will enrich the scholarly environment for the program in which the student is enrolled. The award carries a $500 honorarium to the distinguished faculty and up to $1000 in travel/colloquium expenses.

Total Awarded 1999-2000: $11,652

GRADUATE PROGRAM ENRICHMENT FUNDS
Graduate program enrichment funds are available to support seminars and symposia by distinguished outside speakers. Awards up to $1000 are available to support honoraria, travel and other expenses associated with these events.

Total Awarded 1999-2000: $13,519

STUDENT HEALTH INSURANCE
During 1999-2000, the Graduate School Fellowship Office administered health insurance for 1,845 students. The plan was underwritten by MEGA Life and Health Insurance. Graduate students holding full assistantships (teaching, research, or graduate assistants) or who were full institutional fellowship recipients received the insurance at no cost. In addition to their full-time graduate assistant or fellowship assignment, students were required to be degree-seeking. The cost of the insurance per student was $492.
DOCTORAL PLACEMENT SURVEY HIGHLIGHTS

Each year, the Graduate School conducts a placement survey of its doctoral graduates. This survey is conducted one year after graduation. Provided below are some highlights from the most recent survey (doctoral graduates from the 1998-99 academic year):

• UK produced 204 doctorates in the 1998-99 academic year.

• 69 Kentucky residents received doctoral degrees.

• 54% of UK’s doctorates entered academic positions.

• 13% of UK’s doctorates acquired post-doctoral appointments.

• 23% of UK’s doctorates went into business and industry or federal, state, or municipal government positions.

• 6% were self-employed, in the military, pursuing further education, or seeking employment.

• The status of 8 doctoral recipients (4%) was unknown at the time of the survey.
